

Ye Shall Know Them By Their Fruit

*Words and music by Susan Mack
Arranged by The Solo Committee*

Verse 1

Enter ye in through the narrow gate,
The door of God's onliness,
Which cannot allow any death or disease.
Life is pure holiness.

Chorus

Ye shall know them by their fruit.
Is their any doubt what an apple tree will bear?
Is their any doubt that God is our Source--
Bearing goodness, bearing truth everywhere.

Chorus

Verse 2

Wide is the gate and broad the way
That argues distraction and sin.
How arrogant the broadcast of failure and fear.
How steady the Christ sense within.

Chorus

Bridge

Beware of false prophets,
Those thoughts dressed as innocent sheep.
But like wolves of destruction
They consume us 'till there's nothing to keep.

Chorus

Verse 3

Come out of your finite sense
Into the realm of Mind's infinity.
The light and joy of freedom are immortal here.
Life is one grand harmony.

Chorus
