

3 Steps and a Bounce

words : Susan Mack; music : Carey Loomis

Edited/Arranged by The Solo Committee

© 2004 The Solo Committee

2/3/2004

Intro	D // Bm // Em //- A// G// Em// A7sus A7
Chorus	D Bm Em A Three steps and a bounce is a way I can pray G A F#m G A way I get quiet so I hear what God will say D Bm Em A It's a way I shut the door on anything not good G A Em A D It's a way I tell God thank you, just like Jesus would.
Verse 1	G A D Bm The first step I take is not to fear G A D Bm And I know the reason is that God is always here A F#m D A G Nothing in God's allness is scary, mean or bad. D F#m Em A D My Mind is God, peaceful thoughts are all I have.
Verse 2	G A D Bm The next thing I do is say a great big "NO!" G A D Bm A "no" to any thought that says God's allness isn't so— A F#m D A G To accident or jealousy, to anger, pain, or doubt. D F#m Em A7 I have God's power to shut all error out.
Chorus
Verse 3	G A D Bm The third step I take is to listen and agree G A D Bm With all God's angel thoughts coming straight to me. A F#m D A G They tell me I'm safe – I'm sinless, pure and whole. D F#m Em A7 They tell me that God loves me, that God "restores my soul."
Chorus
Verse 4	G A D Bm And now my favorite part because it makes me smile— G A D Bm I get to jump for joy because I'm perfect all the while. A F#m D A G Gratitude and joy help me know my healing's here. D F#m Em A7 My thoughts are lifted up because I am God's cheer.
Chorus	At the end of this chorus, three knocks, then repeat chorus
Chorus	(with the shakers)