

words/music : Susan Mack
Arranged by The Solo Committee
2/10/2004

2/10/2004

Intro	E/// E/// G/ A/ E/// E///
Chorus	E G A E Jonah, O Jonah, will you go to Ninevah? E G A E Though you think you are chosen, did you know I choose them all? G A D G They too are my children, and I lift them up in Life, E G A E For My law of everlasting Love precludes sin and fear and strife.
Verse 1	A G Now Jonah, he heard God's call, but he turned his heart away. A G He went instead to Tarshish in the first boat he could take. F# G But while at sea a storm came up and almost sank the boat, F# G The men drew lots and found his fault and cast old Jonah out.
Chorus
Verse 2	A G But Jonah didn't drown at sea for a great fish swallowed him. A G For three long days he prayed inside that great liviathan. F# G Then all at once the fish, he through him up upon the beach, F# G Repentant Jonah set out for the Ninevites to reach.
Chorus
Verse 3	A G When Jonah came to Ninevah the people heard his word, A G Warning them to turn from sin and have one God as Lord. F# G The King urged all the people to purify their ways, F# G God saw their honest earnest hearts and blessed them all their days.
Final Chorus	E G A E And now my friend will you go to Ninevah? E G A E Though you think you aren't chosen, did you know I choose you all. G A D G For none can leave My presence, and right where you're swallowed deep, E G A E I lift up My standard in loving care I'll always keep. E G A E I lift up My standard in loving care I will always keep.