Intro	Chorus (with recorder)
Verse 1	A    E        F#m                      D        E    A    E                      I will stand upon my watch, a weapon in one hand.                      A        E        F#m                      D        E    A                      Build the wall Jerusalem with God my guardian.                      A        E        F#m                      D                      E                      God has given me this work so none can stay my hand.                      A    E        F#m    D        E        A                      I will not come down nor cease 'til the wall stands strong and grand
Chorus	A        E        F#m                      Build the wall Jerusalem.                      D        E        A    E                      Build against all odds.                      A                      E        F#m    D                      Build though fear and doubt assail                      A        E        A                      Nothing threatens God.
Verse 2	A    E        F#m                      D        E    A    E                      I will stand upon my watch, building day and night,                      A    E        F#m                      D        E    A                      Rallying my tired thoughts tempted to take flight.                      A    E        F#m    D    E                      Apathy would stop me, mocking make me hide,                      A    E        F#m    D        E        A                      But I will not come down nor cease til the wall stands true and right.
Chorus
Verse 3	A    E        F#m    D        E    A    E                      I will stand upon my watch till the gates are fully set.                      A    E        F#m    D        E    A                      Not a chink in this defense--no place for hatred's threat.                      A                      E        F#m                      D                      E                      Much would argue for delay til all the goals are met,                      A    E        F#m    D        E        A                      But I will not come down nor cease 'till the wall stands fully blessed
