

Daughter be of Good Comfort

words, music: Susan Mack
Arranged by The Solo Committee
2004

Key: C      Meter: 3/4      Guitar Capo: 3      Tempo: 111

Intro	C// Em// Am// F// C// G// C//
Verse 1	C F G C For twelve long years a woman had C Em Am G An issue of blood that none could cure C Em Am G She'd spent all her money, but was without hope C Am F G Till she came to Christ Jesus so strong and so pure. Saying...
Chorus:	CM7 FM7 G CM7 Daughter be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole. C Em Am F C G C Go in peace, go in peace, God has restored your soul.
(last chorus only)	C Em Am F C G C Go in peace, go in peace, God has restored your soul.
Verse 2	C F G C She crept up behind him, so as not to be seen. C Em Am G Getting close to the master was her only goal. C Em Am G Her fingertips touched just the hem of his robe, C Am F G But did she reach out to know man is seamless, is whole? To hear...
Chorus:
Verse 3	C F G C The issue of blood, it stopped right away. C Em Am G And Jesus feeling goodness flow out of him said C Em Am G "Who touched me?" But she would not admit it was me. C Am F G The disciples pointed out the crowd is thronging thee. But she heard...
Chorus
Verse 4	C F G C The Master repeated "Who touched me?" C Em Am G The woman came forward trembling. C Em Am G She told the whole crowd why she'd reached out to him, C Am F G And how she'd been healed at that touch of his hem. And he said...
Chorus	