

Seek Ye First

Words: Susan Mack, Sue Loomis
Music: Susan Mack, Carey Loomis
Arranged by The Solo Committee
Copyright 2003 The Solo Committee

Verse 1

Asus A Asus A
Take no thought for your life, what food you eat.
Take no thought for your life, what clothes you wear.
Just look up at the birds, they fly so free.
See the flowers in the field, in all their glory there!

Chorus

Verse 2

The flowers that flourish in the field, they do not toil.
The birds that fly through the sky, they do not sow.
Your Father feeds you with bread that will never spoil.
Your Father clothes you in grace that will ever grow.

Chorus

D F#m7 G A
Seek ye first the kingdom of God
D Bm7 C9 A
Seek ye first his righteousness
D F#m7 G A
Seek ye first the kingdom of God
G Em A D
And all these things shall come to you
(only last time before modulation)
G Em A B7
And all these things shall come to you

Bridge

C9 D G Em
I say unto you that Solomon in all his Glory
C9 D G Em
Was not arrayed like this simple flower
C9 D G Em
Therefore take no thought saying what shall we do?
C D Em A
Be it eat or drink or cloth it has no power

Chorus

Chorus (modulate to E)

E G#m7 A B
Seek ye first the kingdom of God
C C#m7 D9 B
Seek ye first his righteousness
E G#m7 A B
Seek ye first the kingdom of God
A F#m B A-E
And all these things shall come to you