Intro	CM7 FM7 CM7 FM7
Verse 1	CM7 FM7 There once was a woman who for eighteen years, CM7 FM7 Was infirmed, bowed together and through all of her tears C Em Am F Could find not a single way to lift up herself C Em Am F Though surely she'd sought every known source of help.
Chorus:	CM7 FM7 CM7 FM7 Woman, Woman, Woman you are free to glorify God. C Em Am F You are free of resentment's path that ages have trod. C Em Am F You can stand up and drop all that weight of concern. C Em Am F CM7 You are worthy and joyous, unfettered, unspurned--oh woman, FM7 Woman you are free.
Verse 2	CM7 FM7 Woman did you bow from the burdens of life? CM7 FM7 Did you feel you were martyred as mother and wife? C Em Am F Did you act out the script that was handed to you, C Em Am F Of supporting all others while the years by you flew?
Chorus
Verse 3	CM7 FM7 Now as soon as Jesus saw her he called her to him. CM7 FM7 And as if to dismiss all that oppression within; C Em Am F He said woman thou are loosed from thine infirmity. C Em Am F He touched her she stood up straight immediately.
Chorus
