Intro	A// A// D// A// F#m// C#m// D// A// Bm// E// A// A//
Verse 1	A D A Two sisters there were that were friends of our Lord, E Two sisters who loved him so well. A D A When he came to their home they did both want to show E A How his love had moved deep in their soul. D A Now Martha she toiled and did work to prepare D A E Such a feast it would honor a king. A D A But Mary she sat at the feet of our Lord E A As he spoke of those spiritual things.
Chorus 1	D A Come sit at my feet (1) precious woman awhile. (2) weary woman (3,4) all God's children D A E Unburden yourself of all toil. F#m C#m D A For the words that I speak are of man that is whole, E A Renewing, restoring your soul.
Verse 2	A D A Then Martha approached him and said to him, "Lord", E Bid my sister come help with the work. A D A You can see that it's fair that she do her own part, E A Her womanly labors not shirk. D A Then Jesus said unto her "Martha dear friend, D A E You are careful and troubled too much. A D A Your sister has chosen the part that is right, E A The part none can take nor earth touch."
Chorus 2
Bridge	F#m C#m You are fighting for justice for fragments and parts. F#m C#m You have asked me to judge and divide. D Bm A F# But to me there is only the wholeness of God, Bm E A The kingdom of heaven so wide.
Chorus 3,4	Repeat chorus twice, at end repeat the last line of the chorus as the outro.
